

IRONWORKER SAFETY DIRECTOR TRAINING COURSE

DATES & LOCATION:

5/13 - 5/17/19
Henderson, NV

Ironworkers Local 416/433 Training Center
960 Wigwam Parkway
Henderson, Nevada 89014

COMPETENCIES:

- Application and installation of fall protection systems and calculations of basic lifeline systems.
- Recognizing regulatory compliance, project contract requirements and safety program development.
 - Assessment of safety training and determining competent and qualified persons.
 - Evaluating industrial hygiene, workplace health issues and exposures.
- Development of Job Hazard Analysis, Site Safety Plans and Workplace Inspection Programs.
- Techniques for managing recordable/reportable incidents, incident management and investigations.
 - Roles and responsibilities of a crane assembly-disassembly director.
 - Utilizing new technology safety apps to manage workplace safety on projects.

OPPORTUNITIES TO IMPROVE WORKPLACE SAFETY:

- Ironworkers make the best safety directors because they understand the work performed.
- Combining work skills with new safety skills produce a win-win situation for ironworkers and employers.
 - Increase job opportunities for ironworkers in company safety roles.
- Employers benefit from competent and qualified ironworkers with new safety skills.
 - Increase career opportunities by building on trade experience and knowledge.
 - Learn how to implement, administer, and maintain safety and health programs.
 - Raise the standard of safety performance for ironworkers and their contractors.

MODULES:

- Safety Training and Determining Competent and Qualified Persons
 - Evaluating Workplace Health Issues and Exposures
- Reinforcing Steel-Primary Hazards and Industry Best Practices
 - Steel Erection, Safety and Regulatory Issues
- Regulatory Compliance, Project Contracts and How To Handle OSHA Inspections
 - Development of Job Hazard Analysis and Site Safety Plans
 - Crane Assembly - Disassembly
- Fall Protection Systems (Active and Passive) and Calculations of Basic Lifeline Systems
- Techniques For Managing Recordable/Reportable Incidents and Incident Management and Investigations
 - Be That One Guy - Bystander Training to Combat Workplace Harassment and Bullying;
- Learning to use the Capital Construction Solutions Safety App & Building a Professional Resume

HOW TO FIND OUT MORE OR REGISTER:

www.ironworkers.org
www.impact-net.org

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION
CONTACT: CHRISTIE ROSE
(847) 795-1714 CROSE@IWINTL.ORG

IN CANADA CONTACT:
JEFF NORRIS (780) 717-0071
JNORRIS@IWINTL.ORG